DO YOU NOTICE the increased phasing of the traffic lights on San Pablo Avenue? According to Administrative Officer Jim Turner, they are set for a change of traffic moving at 32 per hour. A joint project of the Division of Highways and the City of Albany, the project is part of the work begun when new traffic lights were installed. It includes mastarms and signals in the middle of the street. The cost, Jim says, will be about $13,000.

AGAIN YESTERDAY a lone Albany police officer risked his life in an emergency situation. Officer Roger Freeman, who has been with the department for more than two years, received the call that a stolen car was speeding through Albany. He kept it set up his car as a roadblock and stood in the street in an attempt to halt the car. When the car hurtling directly toward him, he leaped aside, but he could not be run down and killed.

OFFICER JIM SIMMONS, injured July 10 by a bank robber, returned to work Monday of this week. Officer Gerald Martin, who is been ill, returned Tuesday; Officer Bernard Johnson is still with a back injury. The Police Department, now in vacation season, has been shifting men around to give Albany as much coverage as possible—an average of two men at a time on the street.

He pushed or rolled out everything in the shop, including a couple of barrels and everyone had a place to sit. Patty's fiancé is asked to get her to the surprise affair. He drove up in front of the house, "Get out and go." No subterfuge with that fellow.

HOPES FOR SUBSTANTIAL SCHOOL TAX CUT FADE

Members of the Board of Education of Albany Unified school district were disappointed at the meeting July 16 to learn that because state allocations to the district were not as great as had been estimated, a hoped-for tax reduction of 34 cents may be only eight or nine cents.

When Supt. Kenneth Forry returns from vacation, he will again review the budget and recommend reductions which can be presented for Board consideration at the Aug. 6 public hearing on the publication budget, which will be printed in the Times July 31.

By that time, income from state allocations will be more definite and it is possible that AB 159, to reimburse Albany for the cost of educating children from University Village, may be passed by the Senate and signed by the governor. The bill, now in the Senate, would allow a definite property tax reduction if passed. It cleared the Assembly and Senate last year, only to be vetoed by the governor. Both Senator Lewis Sherman and Assemblyman John J. Miller are trying to get it through.

The Board on July 16 raised the reserve from a "dangerously low" $44,27 to $118,685 to keep it in line with the tentative budget approved June 11. The total budget is $2,568,830, up $452,196 over the 1967-68 school budget of $2,116,634. Assessed valuation in the Albany district is $29,341,000, it was noted.

In discussing the budget, board members indicated that copies are available at the Albany Public Library and the voluminous detailed budget may be seen at the Administration building at 904 Taibot. They discussed the possibility of placing the detailed "line budget" in the library, but added it needs explanation to the layman. There is no legal requirement to place it in a public place, the board was told.

President Charles Pinkham said a citizen had raised a question about "other expenses" in the working budget. He said they are items required by the state and are completely delineated in the line budget. They include text books, library reference books and other supplies.

Other matters The Board was informed that about 250 children are attending the Summer Matinee program at the High school Little Theater each week, sponsored by the Albany PTAs, who are putting profits in a separate fund.

National League in Second All Star Game Tonight

Saturday's Albany Little League All Star games were divided with one win and loss between the two divisions who entered tournament play this week.

National League All Stars badly bruised the Fruitvale All Stars with Dan Gray pitching a 12-0 game. For four innings Albany led 1-0, then collected seven runs with the help of a three run homer by Don Morashige to give a comfortable lead. This team will enter its second game this evening, July 24, at 5:45 in San Lorenzo.

Expert pitching by Matt Gray and Curt Pihl gave the Senior Division All Stars three victories in four days. The fifth day the team was eliminated from further play in this national contest.

Albany's first winner, played Tuesday, drew a 3-1 score over Mt. Eden Nationals, who appeared to be the toughest of all until Saturday's defeat. Gray pitched a two hitter, struck out nine and walked but one. Outstanding fielding was a major factor for the win. Second baseman Martin Valli's acrobatic aggressiveness in defense will long be remembered.

In Thursday's game, Pihl was the winning pitcher giving up three hits, one walk and fanning

10. Albany led this game until the seventh inning 6-0, then allowed Treeview All Stars three runs. Center fielder Shawn Ridley prevented a tying run in the third inning when he stopped a hard hit grounder and returned it to home plate to catcher Len Patterson, who put the second base runner out.

The big inning was the sixth and the big stick was Herb Russell, who hit a stand up triple scoring Patterson. Other hits for that inning were singles by Gray, Pihl, Valli, and Patterson.

Gray returned to the mound Friday against San Lorenzo National pitching a shut out and giving up two hits. He struck out nine, walked four and picked up a hit for himself. The big inning for Albany was the bottom of the third with hits by Russell, Jess Chaves, Ridley and Pihl's stand up triple that cleared three bases.

Team manager is John Sutherland. Gene Hoggatt is the coach.

VACATION Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Foott of 635 San Gabriel have returned from a vacation trip to Pennsylvania to visit her sister and a couple weeks at their summer home near Lake Tahoe.

Albany Featured In Look for Aug. 6

The Northern California edition of Look Magazine for Aug. 6 features a full page Pacific Gas and Electric advertisement about Albany's new street lights on San Pablo Ave.

"Attention burglars in Albany, Calif.: working conditions are getting worse," is written in white on a black background. The lower portion of the ad is a color photograph of San Pablo Avenue with its new lights, obviously taken with a telescopic lens.

Council Sets Work Session On Proposed Civic Changes

Albany City Council Monday night decided to hold a work session sometime this week on ordinances proposed by the firm of Griffenhagen-Kroeger, public administration and finance consultants.

The firm was retained by Council last year at a cost of $2,500 to screen candidates for the post of City Clerk and recommend changes in the city's accounting system.

Since the retirement of former City Clerk Myrtle J. McLean, Bette Rhodes has been named acting clerk until Sept. 1. One of the proposed ordinances sets up qualifications for that position.

The other two will strengthen and more clearly define the office of city administrator and establish an administrative services division responsible for fiscal matters.

James B. Turner, now holding the title of administrative officer, is also public works director, city engineer, superintendent of streets, building official and traffic engineer.

City administrator, as proposed in the report, would be in charge of all budgetary and fiscal matters. He would also be in charge of purchases and accounting procedures. The report added this change would place the council in the role of policy-maker and the administrator as the instrument through which the policy is implemented.

Another ordinance in the package would establish the position of assistant to the city administrator at a monthly salary of $1,050 to head the administrative services division, responsible for drafting the preliminary budget, refining and maintaining accounting systems, establishing and maintaining budget controls and reviewing and coordinating all purchases.

Council held over action on the proposed ordinances until Mayor Richard O. Clark returned from active duty with the reserves. He was back Monday night and the proposals may be on the agenda for next Monday night's session.

Albany Trial Board No. 1 Reaches Decision

Albany's first trial board, made possible through provisions of a charter amendment approved by voters last April, upheld the fine imposed on Police Sgt. Emil Zugnoni by Chief Ralph Jensen in a disciplinary action, but modified methods of paying it.

The decision, reached in a secret session last Thursday night, was not discussed by members of the board. Copies were delivered to the principals.

Following a listing of findings of fact, the board took the following action: "The disciplinary action of the Chief of Police is hereby affirmed in part by this Board allowing the amount of fine imposed to stand, but in view of the extenuating circumstances, the action is modified to provide Sgt. Zugnoni with the option of forfeiting 10 days of days off or recovery time in lieu of the fine of $400.71."

Findings of fact included: 1. On July 5, 1967, a burglary was committed within the territorial jurisdiction of Albany Police Department; and in order to process the crime scene, i.e. obtain evidence including fingerprints, the police officer in charge was instructed by Chief of Police, Ralph M. Jensen, to call Sgt. Zugnoni, who was then off-duty, for this processing, the other two officers usually assigned to such duty being unavailable.

2. Upon being called, Sgt. Zugnoni explained to the police officer in charge that he no longer did this work, and that he would telephone the Chief.

3. Sgt. Zugnoni did telephone the Chief stating that he no longer did this work and would not go to the scene, this in spite of the fact that the Chief reiterated his order and warned him of disciplinary action for disobeying the order.

4. Although there is conflict in the testimony as to the exact conversation, the Board finds that the order, warning and refusal were understood by both parties.

Former Albany Police Officer Dead at 40

Concord Police Capt. Robert L. Bahl, 40, who had been a member of Albany Police Department from 1951-54, died in Oakland Kaiser hospital July 18, following surgery several weeks ago for a brain tumor. He had been in ill health several months.

Captain Bahl, who had won recognition for his work with youth during 14 years with the Concord Police, is survived by his wife, Barbara, of 423 Cuneo Drive, and four children, Nanette, William and twins, Leonard and Suzette, all of Concord. He also is survived by his mother in Los Angeles, sister in Campbell and grandmother of Denver.

A native of Denver and World War II veteran of Army service, he was appointed patrolman with Albany Police on Feb. 1, 1951. He resigned April 15, 1954, to go to Concord. He was promoted to captain in March, 1963.

A graduate of the Delinquency Control Institute, Captain Bahl was a Concord Youth Commission leader and active in Boy Scout leadership and a youth baseball program sponsored by the Optimist club. He was Concord area's Salvation Army welfare representative and winner of a Mt. Diablo Unified School District education association school bell award in recognition of service to schools and youth.

Albany Police Chief and Mrs. Ralph Jensen and Inspector Arthur K. Smith were among those who attended Requiem Mass in

Jack Healy To Go Back To Vietnam

Army Sgt. Jack E. Healy of 1056 Key Route Blvd., currently home on 30-day leave, has been assigned to Third Army headquarters at Ft. McPherson, Ga., but decided to re-volunteer for Vietnam duty with the First Aviation Brigade. He hopes to be back in Vietnam by mid-August.

During his first tour, Sergeant Healy served with the 212th Combat Aviation Battalion in Da Nang, and concluded his assignment with the 268th "Black Lightning" battalion near Tuy Hoa in the II Corps Tactical zone.

A radioman, Sergeant Healy holds the South Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry presented by the Nguyen Cao Ky government, when he served at Marble Mountain in the I Corps Tactical zone.

IT'S A BOY!

Hal and Annabelle Denham proudly report the birth of a son to their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kayo Denham of San Jose. The baby, named Brian Eugene, was 11 pounds, six ounces and 22 inches long. "The LA Rams have signed him already," the grandfather said. Brian joins Suzanne, 3%, and Douglas, 2%. His father is a therapist at San Jose State.

Concord Monday morning. Memorial donations to the American Cancer Society are preferred by the family.

THANKS FOR WRITING

Editor, the Times:

I am enclosing 25 cents and would like to have a copy of items concerning the death of Robert Dennis.

Your coverage of his retirement dinner was excellent, but you could not publish a eulogy befitting Robert without a special edition.

He was truly a friend to man, far more than was known.

He never talked about what he did for the sick, the elderly, those forgotten in their last years, but he did things for them, drove miles to visit them and gave them courage and love.

... He was a money collector but only for a leper colony, a foreign mission, cerebral palsy, children's hospitals and many other pet charities. Give him a hundred dollars and he would add a large donation of his own and away it would go to give aid to some one.

No one heard him preaching his faith. He lived it. God, knowing he needed someone to sustain him, gave him his devoted and wonderful wife, Jeannette.

The world and especially Albany and Siskiyou County has lost a loyal and devoted friend, an honest and dedicated educator, and I'm sure as the years go by it will become more evident.

Robert was a man of God, a champion of education, a true friend. To put it simply, the world is better because he lived.

I knew him from his babyhood, so I know what I am saying.

MRS. EDWARD (THELMA) BONNEVILLE
5820 13th Ave., Sacramento

Editor, the Times:

The average citizen little realizes the hazards faced by a lone officer in a patrol car who answers an emergency call. In too many cases the policeman is surrounded, disarmed, and assaulted before he can summon aid by radio. Since these men are our only safeguard for our property and sometimes our lives, how about increasing their manpower? Two men for each patrol car, at all times. This would more than double their effectiveness, and save the community many thousands of dollars by preventing riots before they get started.

GEORGE MALSARY, Kensington

superior, having just swept in front of her spot, but she did go out and look around and she knows what the visitor is talking about. She asked us to pass the complaint along.

IRENE MacWILLIAMS is hobbling around on a cast after being run down by her whippet (dog), Sherry. Carl and Irene were running their pup at Golden Gate Fields, when Sherry ran into Irene going about 30 miles per hour. Both Irene and the dog spun around and fell. The dog is fine. Irene fractured her ankle.

FLORENCE JACOBS, known as "Auntie" to all the children and grownups in the 400 block of Evelyn Ave., died at the age of 80 last week. She and her late husband, Harry, had no children of their own, but she kept the cookie jar full for her young friends, watched to see they crossed streets carefully and was thrilled with their accomplishments as they matured. Her final joy was news that her grandniece, Gayle Stiltner, had been installed as Grand Bethel Honored Queen of Job's Daughters. Gayle had lived with Auntie while attending Albany High school.

Trial Board

5. According to Albany Police Manual, the Chief was within his proper activity to discipline Sgt. Zugnoli for refusal to obey the order to process the crime scene. Although the processing of fingerprints is limited to members of the I.D. Division ... and testimony as to Sgt. Zugnoli's active assignment to that Division is in some conflict, he was a member of that division for 15 years; had continued to perform some functions of that division; and might reasonably have been considered as still assigned to that Division, lacking any specific action to the contrary.

6. The Board also finds and notes the following: (1) Sgt. Zugnoli has served the City of Albany commendably for 22 years, and (2) that approximately seven months prior to the incident in question, Sgt. Zugnoli clearly indicated his unwillingness to process crime scenes for fingerprints, and this appeared to be accepted by the Chief, who did not subsequently assign him to such work until the date in question.

(The above paragraph lists the "extenuating circumstances" referred to in the decision.)

Burton W. Lewis was chairman of the Trial Board. Other members were Roy Harford, Ruth Lyon, Raul R. Miranda, John Mularky, Herbert Rubin and Tony Kalberer.

Peter Franck represented Sgt. Zugnoli. Albany City Attorney Lawrence D. Saler represented Chief Jensen.

The trial was held in a four-and-a-half hour session in the Council chambers on Thursday, July 11.

LITTLE LEAGUE

The National League Major Division of Albany Little League ended last week in a series of playoffs and when the last out was registered, the Pirates, managed by Norm Jacobson, were the champs.

Manager Bill McKenna's Dodgers won the second half by defeating Manager Bob Gray's Lions Club Cardinals 3-1 in a one game sudden death playoff. Tony Van Coops was the winning pitcher, striking out 12, walking one and scattering five hits. Danny Gray, losing pitcher, struck out 14, walked two and gave up only three hits.

The two best of three game series was played Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The Dodgers took the first game 5-0 behind the pitching of Van Coops, who struck out 12, walked one, allowed five hits and hit a two-run home run off the losing pitcher, Sammy Scoggins. Scoggins had 10 strikeouts, two walks and allowed five hits.

The second game was a Pirate route, 10-0. Teddy Smith was the winning pitcher and Danny Patterson was the loser. The big bats for the Pirates were Pat Hughes, four runs batted in on two singles and a three-run homer; Charley Luty, three for four and Tim Allen, two for three driving in three runs.

The third game for all the marbles pitted Van Coops against Scoggins again, this time the Pirates winning 5-4. Pirates gathered five runs on six hits off Van Coops, who struck out eight and walked two and again hit a two-run homer off winning pitcher, Sammy Scoggins, who struck out 10, walked three and scattered three hits.

The Pirates will represent Albany in the Tournament of Champions in Hayward. The first game will be played at 6 p.m. July 30

SHERMAN ASKS SCHOOL FIRE INSURANCE STUDY

Senator Lewis F. Sherman of Alameda County has obtained Senate Rules committee approval of SR 211 calling for an interim study of the rising cost of insurance for school buildings.

"I introduced a similar measure in 1967," stated Senator Sherman, "as a result of the coverage offered the Oakland school district after a series of fires. At that time, even after taking extensive security precautions demanded by the insurers, insurance was offered the Oakland Unified School District only at such prohibitive rates and unrealistic limits as to negate its value. There was little support in the legislature for the study at that time, as it was considered a local phenomenon."

"This year there is a different story. Schools in the unified school districts of Compton, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Sacramento have experienced both school arson and frightful increase in insurance rates. In fact, I have been informed that one large insurance carrier has now refused to underwrite any new districts with large schools."

"I want it clearly understood that I realize," continued Senator Sherman, "the insurance companies must consider their policy holders and stockholders. They cannot be expected to pick up the tab for districts unable to halt a series of disastrous fires. It is for this reason that a study will be made to determine some method whereby this valuable public property can be covered.

The State and local governments are pouring tremendous sums into the education of our young people, and it is unthinkable that large sums should be continued to be drained off in paying for inadequate insurance and in replacing valuable buildings without adding anything to our educational program. Elaborate alarm systems, roving patrolmen and night watchmen, though instituted by the districts at great cost, have been only partly effective in reducing the fires. The State must find a way to provide for replacement of the school which falls victim to the hit and run fire-bomb lunatic."

The resolution calls for an interim committee "to study and and all plans whereby the State may assist (those) school districts . . . to obtain insurance . . .
at reasonable costs so that they may devote their maximum effort to education."

"As the local districts seem to be the target of the arsonist," concluded Senator Sherman,
"there is at least a hope that the fires will cease when the local districts no longer are embarrassed by being required to cover the costs. Hopefully, the Senate committee being charged with this study will come up with a workable plan."

Local Residents Participate in McCarthy March

Local participation in the "March for McCarthy" on July 27 in San Francisco is being planned by the Albany-North Berkeley McCarthy Campaign committee.

Albany March Chairman Phyllis Lyon stated that the purpose of the march would be to demonstrate wide-spread support for Senator Eugene McCarthy's nomination for President at the Democratic national convention.

"Although the primary elections have clearly shown that the majority of Democrats want a change from present foreign and domestic policies, it appears that State and National party leaders have not yet chosen to listen to the voice of the people," the committee chairman said. "We hope this show of support for Senator McCarthy will help lead to an open and truly democratic nominating convention."

McCarthy supporters will assemble at 11 a.m., Saturday, July 27, in San Francisco at Fell and Baker Streets and march to the Civic Center Plaza where a rally with well-known speakers and entertainment will take place.

Albany residents supporting the McCarthy candidacy include Tim Fine, Karl Anderson, Robert Berman, Ruth Menikoff, Robert Bayley and John and Nancy Hunter.

A series of noon lectures tracing the history of South Africa and the rise of its extreme form of racism will be given in the Student Union at the University of California tonight and Thursday, July 25. The lectures will be delivered by James R. Baylor.

Baylor has a Master's Degree in history, instructs African history in the Albany Adult Education program, and will be teaching the History of West Africa at the University of Illinois, Chicago, in the fall. He has lived and worked in Ethiopia, and recently was married to Muriel Elizabeth Arkley, formerly of Albany.

The lectures will include the migration of the Bantu, the kingdom of the Swazi, the expansion of the Zulu, the Great Trek of Joint installation ceremonies will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Albany Veterans' Memorial building for new officers of Albany post 292 of the American Legion and Albany unit 292 of the American Legion auxiliary.

The post will be headed this year by Robert Spomer, commander, and the auxiliary by Mrs. Maude Talmadge, president.

Other officers include Keith Truax, first vice commander; George Pickett, second vice commander; Charles Lindh, adjutant; Carl Waters, finance officer; Clarence Warrington, chaplain; Gilson Talmadge, historian; Thomas Peugh, sergeant at arms, and board members Walter E. Ellis, Ralph Buchwalter, Philip Miller and Robert Heafy. Serving a two-year term as service officer is C. Edward Johnson.

Other new officials of the auxiliary are Mrs. Dorothy Pickett, first vice president; Mrs. Anne Calais, second vice president; Mrs. Katherine Hammer, secretary; Mrs. Mary Hanson, treasurer; Mrs. Ida Taylor, chaplain; Mrs. Roberta Bryan, historian; Mrs. Rita Snell, sergeant at arms, and executive committee members Mrs. Margaret Hanahan, Mrs. Marcella Ellis and Mrs. Sheila Drozda.

Post officers will be installed by acting commander Al Mathemat, who is serving in the capacity for the 41st consecutive time.

Representations to the Inter-Club Council last Thursday morning decided to go ahead with plans for a sign standard bearing insignia of local groups. All clubs represented have indicated a willingness to participate.

Chairman Al Thorogood appointed Myrtle McLean as secretary for the group.

Funds raised in a community-wide rummage sale, sponsored by ICC in October, will be used in furthering long range plans. They include the Christmas tree on the BART overhead at Solano, improving the Nativity Scene on the corner of Key Route Blvd. and Solano and beginning to decorate Key Route Blvd. for the holidays.

Firemen's Wives

Albany Ladies auxiliary of California State Firemen's association will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Dick McSheehy. Mrs. John Hritz, president, will preside.

If you are one attracted by a dog's loyalty and obedience to his human master, Albany Lions have invited the public to Serb's parking lot, 145 San Pablo Ave. at 7 p.m. Thursday evening.

Promptly at that hour Richmond police officers, Bill Hamberlin and George Ewing, accompanied by partners, "Rebel and Mister" will demonstrate dog's special adaptability to the art of police work.

Contrary to a deep-rooted misconception, these four legged animals are no different than any other pet, pushing their loving dispositions to the back only when performing in the line of duty.

Should a reader be more interested in protection of life and property than man's best friend, the demonstration will also bring enlightenment.

To observe the coordination of so many factors as these four legged friends go about the work at hand will certainly inspire a respect, second to none.

Ralph Jensen, Albany Lions Chief, will act as master of ceremonies.

There is no charge and a light refreshment will be served. ry Kruse, Jr., president of local Lions reminds all that the demonstration will start at 7 p.m. to permit the officers to turn to Richmond without delay. Lion John Moon, past chairman, will be in charge.

REBEKAHS

Berkeley Rebekah Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows will meet Wednesday, 24, at 8 p.m. at Berkeley Fellows' Temple, 2288 Folsom Street. Noble Grand Elmer Wells will preside. Mrs. McAbbe will be chairman of the evening and will present a program of games. Rebekah journing in the East Bay will be welcome.

Fire Captain McSheehy Tells of Trip to Ireland

by Richard McSheehy

California State Firemen's association through its large member group has instigated a person-to-person type tour.

They visit fellow firemen in other countries, get to know the families and people and how they work and live, which may be different from our way.

The tours in the past have been to Mexico, Italy, France, and the Hawaiian Islands. This year the CSFA visited the United Kingdom and Ireland. My wife Helen and I realized a great opportunity to visit the land of our parents, and at the same time enjoy the company of people in our own profession.

Flight arrangements were through Irish Air Lines. We arrived in New York from San Francisco and were introduced to real Irish coffee, a drink I found to be an institution in the Green Isle.

Our tour began from London where we were entertained by the London Fire Brigade. After a three-day stay in England's first city, we motored through Windsor, Henley-on-Thames and Oxford, staying at the famed Shakespeare Hotel in Stratford-on-Avon.

After enjoying visits to Anne Hathaway's home and Shakespeare's residence and viewing the Shakespeare Theater, we continued our motor trip to Bromsgrove and Kidderminster and lunched in Shrewsbury. After lunch it was on to Liverpool, where we had an opportunity to visit with my pen pal, the Chief Fire Officer of the Southport Fire Brigade. We spent a full day in Southport as guests of the local fire brigade, watching the men go through fire fighting evolutions.

Chief Officer John Perkins extended many courtesies to our visiting group. After our stay in Liverpool and visiting the new Cathedral of Christ the King, we continued through the Lake District accompanied by Chief Perkins, who acted as a personal guide for our party.

The Chief left us at just before we crossed into Scotland arriving by way of Grasmere, Ullswater and Penrith. This area is the most beautiful part of England. We stayed in Carlisle, an English town inhabited by Scots. A visit to Gretna Green, then to Edinburgh. We had dinner with the Edinburgh Fire Master, as their chiefs are called. The next day, we visited the headquarters fire station and stayed for dinner and dancing with the Fire Master and his chief officers and their wives. Bagpipes for dinner music is a test of one's constitution, I'm afraid.

We toured the Rob Roy country after a three-day visit to Edinburgh with visits to the Edinburgh Castle and a few golf courses. In fact there are seven municipal courses for Edinburgh alone, not taking count of the private clubs. Some private clubs have a fee of $20 a year American. This includes green fees and some club privileges.

On May 20 we found ourselves in Dublin. Our four-day stay was at the Gresham Hotel. An attendance to a show at the Abbey Theater, a visit to relatives at a village north of Dublin named Athboy, shopping trips, a view of The Book of Kells at Trinity college, an evening at Juries, the famed night club, more Irish coffee with a little Guinness here and there, a visit to the headquarters fire station, dinner with the Chief Fire Officer, his assistants and their wives, more Irish coffee and we were on our way to Waterford.

We viewed the famed Waterford crystal factory, met more firemen and on through Glendalough and Wicklow. In traveling this portion, we stopped for a stretch and were invited to a wedding reception—more Irish coffee toasting someone who was just married, then on to Cork.

We kissed the Blarney Stone at Blarney Castle. Next we motored through Glengariff and on to Killarney, taking the Ring of Kerry drive through the southwestern part of Ireland where Gaelic is prevalent, viewed the lakes of Killarney and took a train ride to Tralee.

Our stay in Killarney was at the Great Southern Hotel. We walked the country side, viewed the peat bogs, had a little Irish coffee and went to Shannon, where we had dinner at a medieval castle. It was served in the manner of that day. Enjoyed a drink of mead, which is a concoction of fermented honey and apple juice, a bit more mild than their coffee.

After a stay at the George Hotel in Limerick, home of my ancestors, we were on our way home but not before a shopping spree at the Shannon Airport.

To sum up the 21-day trip, I can only say "Erin Go Braugh!"

Security Savings Staff Honored

Manager Bernice Boyd and the staff of Albany's Security Savings and Loan were honored last Thursday evening for having passed another $5 million mark.

Employees and their husbands were honored by management with a champagne dinner dance cruise to Tiburon. The weather cooperated and came through with a "five million dollar evening," according to Mrs. Boyd.

Janet Ambrose Is Bride

Janet Carol Ambrose, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Raymond Ambrose of 1618 Sonoma Ave., Albany, and the late Mr. Ambrose, was recently married at St. Ambrose church to Albert Joseph Bertolero, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Bertolero of Oakland.

Given in marriage by her cousin, Edward Ambrose of Livermore, the bride wore a white silk organza skimmer with Venice lace daisies. Lace trimmed the jewel neckline, short sleeves and bottom of the skirt. Her organza train fell from the shoulder line and a high Juliet crown of lace applique outlined with pearls and beads held her short illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white philanopsis orchids and Stephanotis.

Donna Kathleen Clark of Alburquerque, N.M., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Joanne Elizabeth Cieri of Larkspur and Julie Ann Bertolero and Marlon Bertolero, both of Oakland. Flower girl was Bronwyn Richardson of Berkeley and ring bearer was Michael Cieri of Larkspur.

Bridal attendants wore Nile green saki cloth frocks in a line with empire bodices accented with yellow lace flowers. Tulle veils fell from bows of self material. They carried yellow carnations and ivy. The flower girl wore white eyelet with a green sash and carried a basket of yellow daisies.

Best man was Edward Joseph Morgan of Oakland. Ushers included Phil Francis of Yuba City; Ronald Teshima, Oakland, and Quentin Nakagawa, Danville.

The bride's mother wore a pale blue Alaskine ensemble with matching accessories and a white orchid. The mother of the bridegroom wore pink linen coat dress with orchid corsage.

Her husband, graduate of St. Mary's High school, is a senior at California Polytechnic college in San Luis Obispo. He received the "outstanding senior award for the class of 1968" at Cal Poly. A member of Eta Sigma Phi fraternity, he works for Naulet's nurseries, owned by his father.

Among out of town guests was the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. James Speare of Laurel, Mont.

City of Albany Receives $8,662 In Special Fees

The City of Albany has received $8,662 as its six-month share of the special fees paid by holders of alcoholic beverage licenses.

The payment was made by the state's department of alcoholic beverage control which allocates 90 per cent of all license fee money back to individual cities and counties where it is used to offset the costs of police and fire protection, schools, highways, hospitals and other government services. The remaining 10 per cent goes into the state's general fund where it is used for similar purposes.

The most recent payment was for the six-month period ending Feb. 29, 1968. Alameda County as a whole, including the unincorporated area, received $400,201 for the period.

A package store beer and wine license costs the owner $37 with a yearly renewal fee of $12. A general on-sale tavern license costs $6,580 originally, with an annual renewal fee of $580, while a beer and wine only tavern license costs $234, renewable yearly for $84.

According to Geo. W. Ososke, executive secretary of the California Brewers Assn., local governments throughout the state as a whole received $7,004,054 for the latest period which, coupled with the $5,055,833 received for the period ending Aug. 31, 1967, makes an annual total of $12,059,887.

"These fees," Ososke said, "are actually all paid by the consuming public in the form of higher retail prices. It is still another example of one segment of the public, buying a legal product in a legal way from a legitimate businessman, being forced to pay a greater proportion of the cost of schools, highways, police and other government services than does a consumer of most other goods."

Adult Dropout?

For nearly every roll in which today's adult is likely to find himself, he is going to have to undertake continual learning, unlearning and re-learning in order to maintain his competence. As a consumer, as a citizen, as a job holder, as a parent and as a human being, he will have to help find solutions to the problems that increase as fast as the knowledge that causes them.

Everyone knows that more education is necessary. The average working adult in 1960 had spent twice as many days in school as his counterpart in 1930 and two and one-half times as many as his counterpart in 1910.

Citizens who have not yet completed their secondary education should note that the Albany Adult school conducts a program leading towards acquisition of a high school diploma. Counseling is available, and part of this service is to locate previous school records, evaluate work experience and recommend a course of study that would fulfill state and local graduation requirements. For information call 526-6441.

In the words of Fred Harvey Harrington, president of the University of Wisconsin, "Everyone who stops learning is a dropout these days."
